

The Kiwanis Promise

Hudson Kiwanis is committed to the physical and mental well being of our ball players and the social development of the whole person. We recognize the great demands placed on children and are committed to providing the support they need to get the most out of their program experience. Athletes are expected to adhere to the standards set below so as to best represent themselves, their team and the community that is Hudson Basketball.

Parents

1. I promise to remain positive in my interaction with my son and his teammates.
2. I promise to not ever engage the referees or opposing team in a way that poorly reflects on myself, my team, community or Hudson Kiwanis.
3. I promise to professionally and cordially communicate any questions with the coaches (volunteers) and follow the process as outlined.

Coaches

1. I promise to always communicate with the players in a respectful manner.
2. I promise to focus on the good of the team and not any one specific player on said team.
3. I promise to professionally and cordially communicate with referees, opposing coaches and parents of both our team and the opposing team.

Players

1. I promise to listen to my coaches and focus on the good of the team.
2. I promise to respect myself, my opponent, the referees, my parents and the game
