Chocolate Sale Rules

1. Our players and parents are responsible to pay for all product checked out to them, even if lost, stolen, eaten, melted or abducted by aliens! NOTE: If you could just write the club a check for $60 and then recoup your money from sales that would be wonderful!
2. We ask that each player or family sell their entire box of chocolate. We cannot take back any chocolate. You are responsible for all you take.
3. Please turn in money to your Team Parent at least once a week, don't wait until you've sold all your chocolate. NO COINS PLEASE! All money from the first box must be turned in before additional boxes can be given out. An envelope is provided in the chocolate box; write your players name on it.
4. Prizes are not cumulative and will be awarded soon after the sale ends.
5. IMPORTANT: Turn in ALL money to your Team Parent no later than March 15th qualify for prizes. All money is due to the fundraising/sponsorship coordinator by March 16th.
6. For questions, money turn in or another box of chocolate, please first contact YOUR Team Parent:

SECRETS OF SUCCESS

- BE SMART! SAFETY FIRST! NEVER SELL DOOR-TO-DOOR UNLESS YOU ARE WITH YOUR PARENT OR GUARDIAN!
- Parents, relatives & friends are encouraged to help us out by selling at their work if permissible.
- Chocolate can be sold in and around shopping areas but get the store manager's OK first!
- Why not ask business people, store managers and professionals if they would sponsor a whole box to support our organization?
- Be polite, it goes a long way these days, even if a potential "customer" isn't interested in buying chocolate.

We are a non-profit organization, run solely by volunteers.

This fundraising drive helps pay for club expenses that registration dues just don't cover.

Thank you for supporting Whitney Little League!
