

CYBSA Coach Code of Conduct

As a coach I will:

- Be responsible for my own behavior, my fellow coaches' behavior, my team's behavior, and my team's fan behavior
- Study and fully understand the rules of the league, and encourage all players, coaches, and fans to abide by those rules
- Teach the rules to my team
- Respect all league facilities and equipment
- Respect the game, league, umpires, players, and opposing teams, and communicate with them in an appropriate manner
- Leave the fields, dugouts, and spectator areas cleaner than I found them
- Place the wellbeing of my players ahead of personal desire or external pressure to win
- Ensure that all players are supervised by myself or another authorized member of my staff and will never allow any players to be left unattended or unsupervised at either a game or practice
- Never knowingly permit an injured player to play without sufficient medical approval
- Not allow players or siblings to climb on fences
- Keep all players in the dugouts or on the field during the course of the game
- Keep parents and siblings out of the dugouts and off the field during the course of the game
- Promptly and fully read all communications from the league
- Promptly disseminate to my families any pertinent information provided by the league
- Continue to do everything I can to improve my own coaching skills
- Not allow illegal or unsafe equipment to be used
- Begin and end practice on time, unless permission from the families has been granted
- Ensure all my players have the opportunity to advance their skills
- Create an organized environment during my practices and games
- Most importantly, make the sport of baseball fun for every player!
