2019 LFL - RULES

AAA

AAA Division Season Play

The AAA Division is intended to be a logical transition from AA to Majors baseball, and is the last “Minors” division of Little League Baseball. Players continue developing baseball fundamentals, all aspects of teamwork, and learn more advanced defense and offense strategy and skills in this competitive division. Although competitive, the focus remains on player development with the emphasis always placed on having fun, player safety, and sportsmanship!

1. AAA games shall follow Little League “Green Book” rules.
2. There will be a continuous batting order with every rostered player batting.
3. There will be no new inning after 2 hours.
4. During the last inning, if the visiting team is down in score, no matter what the score is, they may continue batting until they score 5 more runs than the home team’s score, as long as 3 outs have not been made.
5. Each half inning will end after 3 outs or 5 runs, whichever occurs first
6. No player shall sit out 2 consecutive innings.
7. Home team is responsible for keeping score and visiting team is responsible for pitch count and scoreboard operation
8. Field Maintenance:
  - a) The home team shall be responsible for field preparation. The field must be in playing condition at least thirty (30) minutes prior to the scheduled start time. The field must be dragged, watered (if necessary), and lines painted/chalked.
  - b) The visiting team shall be responsible for field take down and locking the bin.
  - c) All trash shall be cleared from the dugouts by both teams.

AAA Division Post Season Play

1. All post season games shall be played per regular season rules except as follows:
  - Games may not end in a tie; extra innings are allowed.
  - Time limit is lifted.
  - All games shall play a complete six (6) innings.
  - The sixth (6) inning shall be considered the “last inning” and both teams shall be able to score unlimited runs.

- Any required extra innings shall also be played as the “last inning” and both teams shall be allowed to score unlimited runs.
